Efficiency is her password . . . service is her creed . . . and by these she has become recognized as an essential part of Lee High. Patient, kind, and cooperative, she has earned the gratitude and won the admiration of all. Once again, we, the staff of the 1950 BLUE AND GRAY say "Thank you" and it is with great pleasure that we proudly dedicate this book to MARY B. WEARY.

Foreword

The life of a year book to the underclassman is short — a few days perhaps, but to the graduate, its lifetime matches his own.

While working on this mid-century edition of the BLUE AND GRAY, our aim has been to give you a book which is, more than ever before, personally yours. We have tried to capture a little of the personality of each senior — a little of your work — a little of your play — a little of everything that is symbolic of your years at Lee. We have combined all this and now present to you a book which we hope will hold for each of you, memories of those things which are dearest to your hearts.

JOSEPH W. GILBERT

"AN INSTITUTION IS THE LENGTHENED SHADOW OF ONE MAN"

Our principal, Joseph Gilbert, is that one man whose untiring efforts have gained for our school the fine reputation which has placed it on the top of every list. He has woven the rough unfinished threads of thousands of students together into an unequalled institution. His competent hand on the steering wheel of our everyday life will long be remembered by all the students who have passed through these halls. No words can express the gratitude and admiration we hold in our hearts for this gentleman, scholar, and friend.

MARGUERITE P. CULP

"A WOMAN WELL BRED AND WELL TAUGHT, FURNISHED WITH THE ADDITIONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF KNOWLEDGE AND BEHAVIOR, IS A CREATURE WITHOUT COMPARE".

Such is Marguerite Culp, our dean of girls, who always finds time to advise and discuss with us our problems and difficulties. Her unselfish attitude, combined with charm and sincerity, is the keynote to her success. She will always be remembered as the gracious lady who helped make our years at Lee dear to us.

ROBERT LOCKETT

"OUR CHIEF NEED IN LIFE IS SOMEONE WHO CAN MAKE US DO THOSE THINGS OF WHICH WE ARE CAPABLE".

This ability accompanied by a sense of fair play, a profound understanding, and a genial wit marks "Coach" Lockett as one of the most well liked personalities at Lee. His personal concern in all matters brought to his attention denotes the heartfelt interest he maintains in every boy and girl. Rarely combined are keen sportsmanship and intellectual interests — both are found and admired in our assistant principal, Robert Lockett.

CLASS HISTORY

At Last! Seniors! We've completed that big step! At times it may have seemed a hard and tedious struggle, but recalling with fond memories our years here at Lee, we realize these trials and tribulations have added to each one of us a higher ideal and a greater respect toward our fellow man.

Remember that first assembly? What an eventful day! After entering those forbidding doors and gazing down those long, gray corridors, we were quickly ushered into the auditorium, where we were welcomed by Mr. Gilbert, with his parental speech. Mrs. Culp, understanding completely the feelings of us confused sophomores, helped put us at ease. At that moment we decided that they were to be our guiding light throughout our years at Lee.

That first year, our enthusiasm centered around the various fields of sports. The football team proved its valor by presenting the school with the Big Ten Trophy and the mythical State Championship. In basketball, we tied for the city title; in track we dominated all the meets. In addition, our baseball team received great recognition.

After three glorious months of summer vacation, we quietly slipped into our places as Juniors. We were even more thrilled than we had been the year before, for we now realized that we were an established part of the school. That year we actually participated proudly in the school activities, since we ourselves presented the two annual Fashion Shows, both of which were greatly successful. Our Speech Department certainly did excel that year, as did our band and glee club. The sports department, as usual, made us exceptionally proud; but the height of achievement as Juniors was reached when our work for the Junior-Senior Prom proved entirely successful.

Finally we reached the height of all our expectations—that year of years had come at last.

This term, our football team was again unapproachable—victory reigned throughout the season. The fine season was climaxed by the Lee-Jackson Thanksgiving Game, at which time the Sponsors were presented. While on the subject of football, credit should also be given to our cheerleaders for doing so much to keep up our school spirit.

We soon came down out of the clouds and found ourselves working diligently on perfecting the Jubilee and the Vodvil. These both proved to be great successes. During the greatly-welcomed holidays, the student body enjoyed the Christmas Dance at the Roosevelt Hotel. Then we resumed our studies and soon began work on the Senior Play, "Meet Me In St. Louis". During this time the Annual Staff was working at full capacity to achieve an even more outstanding year book. As the days slipped quickly by, we became more conscious of the prospective colleges and vocations into which we hoped to enter. We were then about ready to complete the wonderful years at Lee with graduation and the Junior-Senior Prom. It is hard to express the deep feeling which we all have toward the commencement exercises.

Yes, Lee High School! We've come to you, we have worked for you—we have been you and you have become a part of us that will never leave our hearts.

 you always
 you are a darling girl. Virginia

Dear Cherry, to the scholars of our history class - Well, kid, it's been fun being with you in history & hope that next year will be no different. Honestly Cherry, I don't know what we would have done without you. I know that you are a lot brighter than I am but I think that maybe someday my intelligence will equal yours. Best of luck always to a very cute & sweet girl. Love,
 Alice

The Robert E. Lee D. C. T. Club opened its social activities of the year with a wonderful hayride and weiner roast at Mayport, on October 13. Every member attended and enjoyed himself thoroughly. The next social gathering was a Turkey Supper and Christmas Party held in our co-ordinator's home. Mr. Gilbert, special guest, carved the turkey. One of the high lights of our D. C. T. activities this year was the Employer-Employee banquet held on March 20 in the Seminole Hotel. Each student, with his employer, attended the affair. On March 31, the Gainesville D. C. T. Club played host to all the D. C. T. Clubs in District 1 for our annual district convention. Each Lee D. C. T. student attended. The delegates for this convention were Martha Tanner, Rudy Ogburn (chairman), Joanne Lamb, Webster Marlowe, Earnest Harvey, and Bobby Harris. May 4 and 5 marked the dates for the Annual State D. C. T. Convention held in Daytona. Rudy Ogburn, state secretary, along with two delegates from our club attended this convention. The 1950 D. C. T. Club can be remembered as starting the monthly meeting of the D. C. T. executive boards of the three local schools, Landon, Jackson, and Lee. The first meeting was held at the home of Martha Tanner on March 7. Martha Tanner was elected chairman of the executive board with Frank Reneke, president of the Jackson D. C. T., serving as first vice-president, and Kathryn MacDowell, secretary of the Landon D. C. T., was elected secretary.

BETA Y-TEENS

The Beta Y-Teens have worked earnestly this year to complete their service projects. By "adopting" a family and providing food and clothing for it they have worked together spreading happiness and good will. Several well known speakers have honored them with interesting talks making this year one of their most successful.

DELTA Y-TEENS

The Delta Y-Teens have brought happiness to many by contributing generously to C.A.R.E. Their successful Fashion Show & Dance, staged with the aid of Delta Hi-Y, raised additional money with which they helped various causes.

Style, good grooming, and dating were topics chosen by speakers who addressed the club at many of its meetings.

QUILL AND SCROLL

As a result of hard work and outstanding service on literary publications, eleven students have been awarded membership in the Lee Chapter of the Quill and Scroll. Their active interest and growing ability have placed them at the top as leading students of journalism.

NATIONAL HO

Members of the Robert E. Lee Chapter of the National Honor Society were selected in their junior year by the faculty on the basis of outstanding scholarship, leadership, character, and service. With the realization that honor and responsibility go hand in hand, these students have earnestly endeavored throughout all their senior activities to uphold the ideals of their organization and to set forth worthy examples for underclassmen. For the year 1949-1950 the chief services rendered by this group were tutoring, distributing and collecting books, donating blood to the local blood bank, sponsoring the publication of a student directory, and assisting with the school evaluation project.

Highlighting the activities of the Le Cercle Francais this year were the French plays, "Trop de Pretendus", written and produced by Eleanor Lanford of the second year class, and "Modestie", directed by Mrs. Eccles and produced by members of last year's advanced French class. The casts included Walter Winney, Dolly Anne Kissling, Sara Towers, Gracelyn Moore, Mae Sue Eng, Connie Brown, Franklin Perritt, George Stuart, Jim Dressler, Margie Atlas, and the French intern, Monsieur Biastee. Musical numbers were rendered at the performance by Diane Holland, Sunya Bowen, and Mason Darby, and the accompanists were Jenell Smith and Ben Hulsey. The public was invited to attend.

LeCercle Francais was honored to have a young French war bride speak to them of her experience with the French underground during the last war. The club was invited one afternoon to see the French exhibit from the "Merci" Train on display in the Children's Museum. Mrs. C. D. Towers generously entertained the French Club in the spring with a tea to climax the activities of the year.

The meetings of Le Cercle Francais give students of French an opportunity to hear and speak French informally between themselves and thus learn to use the language more easily. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Leonie Seabrook Eccles, head of the Modern Foreign Language Department.

JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE

THIS year the Junior Classical League has become very active, meeting the first Monday of every month during second period. The aim of the league is to make Latin more interesting to students. In keeping with the pattern of the Roman customs, the members use Latin names during class time and meetings. Several of the members went to Lakeland to attend the annual Florida Classical League Forum. Nan Daniel was elected secretary in the state league. A Roman banquet is held on April 21 in celebration of the founding of Rome. Members attend dressed in Roman costumes to portray Roman characters, thus bringing a fitting close to a prosperous year.

THE STUDY HALL MONITORS

The Study Hall Monitors help their teachers in the checking of the roll and in the distribution of hall, office, and library permits. Those chosen to be monitors must prove themselves capable of this job not only by maintaining a high average in their grades but also in setting a good example for their fellow students.

Lee is well on its way to having the most active N. F. L. in the state. The outstanding activities this year were: staging the "Forensic Frolics", participating in debates and Student Congresses, sponsoring speakers in contests, and radio work. Lee sent twenty speakers to the State N. F. L. Meet at Sarasota in April.

THESPIAN SOCIETY

The Thespian Society made 1950 a memorable year in Lee high dramatics. From the curtain time of "Mother Is A Freshman" to the last lines of "Arsenic and Old Lace", the activities of the group "rocked with success". "Charm School", the Senior Girls' Jubilee, and "Meet Me In St. Louis", the Senior Class play, were high spots on the calendar of Thespians. In addition to acting and directing productions, members found time to apply make-up, plan and build sets, work back stage, collect properties, and handle publicity. The press notices for the plays and the large membership of the organization are "proof of the pudding" as the Lee Thespians set their sights for 1951.

1st row: Anna Soderquest, Susan Lucas, Martha Anderson, Marcia McKinney, Margie Atlas, Anne Cohen, Dot Bowen, Carole Dwoskin, Anne Busselle, Jean Mitceselly, Marcia Morris.

RADIO GUILD

Leaving classes in a cavalcade of cars, to the radio station we head. Rustling pages . . . rehearsal of scripts . . . clearing of throats . . . a flicker of the light . . . and we're on the air.

The main project of the year was the presentation of our own original Bill of Rights script over the air in the form of a skit. Broadcasting interviews, announcements, dramas, and documentary programs, were other activities of the up and coming Radio Guild.

5th row: Mildred Barrett, Pat Ferguson, Pearl Rosier, Pokey Smith, Paul Pappas, Jimmie Jacobs, Robert Willis, Kenneth Olsen, Walter Winney.

The junior chapter of the Red Cross Club was organized at Lee to help the National Red Cross in its many worth-while activities. Among its projects for the year was the distribution of important pamphlets and posters which were essential in the annual Red Cross drive. In April, the club filled gift boxes for the war stricken children of Europe. In the Junior Red Cross membership drive this year, Lee was first in the senior high division.

LIBRARY STAFF

The Lee Library Council members give their time voluntarily to help in practically all phases of library work, particularly in aiding fellow-students find books. This staff receives no merit for its work except the satisfaction of knowing its task is well done.

Excellent movies, well prepared reports, and numerous field trips have been combined in a manner which has served to stimulate the interest of all club members. With the goal of becoming better informed in the field of science, the group paid a visit to Kingan's Meat Packing Plant, made a tour to the beach to collect shells, and hiked through the nearby woods, collecting plants as they went. These expeditions are only a few of the new and varied experiences offered by the Science Club of 1950.

1950 was an outstanding year in the history of the Lee Debate Club. The Lee debators received a rating of excellence in the State Debate Tournament in Miami. In addition to sending delegates to out of town debates, Lee has been host on several occasions to other Jacksonville schools during practice debates.

CLASS PROPHECY

TWENTY YEARS HENCE — 1970

Sonny May and Dick Kent run into Judy Simkins on the corner of Gilbert and Lockett Streets.

Judy: Well, my goodness, if it isn't Dick and Sonny! What have you been doing these past twenty years?

Dick: Well, hello, Judy. Sonny and I have just returned from Upper-Lower Slobovia, where we have been conducting an extensive study of the antoscorbutic, semi-sempiternal schmoo.

Sonny: And guess who we saw while we were there! We saw Vernon Brown and Virginia Thomason, those internationally famous producers of Shakespearean plays, accompanied by Sunya Bowen and Diane Holland, who are still vying for the role of Lady Macbeth. By the way, speaking of dramatics, we hear that Anna Soderquest has become the "Mae West" of modern vaudeville, and that Jim Dressler and Suzi Jones are still trying to win that age-old argument, "You Can't Squeeze Blood Out of a Turnip", or "How To Get By Mr. Lockett".

Judy: I have just received a letter from Kim Penland, who was given life at San Quentin by Judge Salem Salem for giving our present ambassador to Georgia, Arch Cassidy, a hot foot. Oh, by the way, Chester Clarke has been promoted to Chief Warden there by the Board of Directors, which consists of Lonnell Hogan, Burdell McCormack, Susan Bernard, Marjorie Rogers, Connie Travis, and Tommy NesSmith.

Dick: Speaking of institutions, has Calvin Tuggle recovered from the nervous breakdown he had after judging the "Miss America" contest which was won by Betty Bosworth?

Judy: No, but that eminent psychiatrist, Morton Lord, is working on him. Tell me, did you happen to pass Kenneth Tarratus, John Stiefel, or Jim Ade trying to swim the English Channel backwards?

Sonny: No, but I did pass Peggy Miller on her way to the Follies. She's the director, you know. I guess she got her start with the Senior Girls' Jubilee at Lee. I wonder if I could get tickets. I hear that Lorraine Elder, the world famous fan dancer, and her company of chorus girls, including Hilda Randolph, Grace Pilkington, Ann Baxley, Gracelyn Moore, Gloria Richardson, and Sarah Towers, are going to be there.

Dick: Sonny, we can't go to the Follies! That's the night that up and coming baseball team owned by Clinton Thomas, Harry Edwards, and Walter Winney, are playing the local champs owned by Mary Lee Brogden, Nancy Hurner, and Viola Esters.

Sonny: That's a shame. I hear that Rudy Ogburn is singing with Vivian Haven's band that night. Also on the program are the Joy Boys, Billy Ketchum Joy, Walker Morris Joy, Earl McPherson Joy, and Van May Joy, and that famous M.C., Larry Nettles.

Judy: Not trying to change the subject, but there was quite an article in Linda Fink's newspaper, The Daily Wash, about Barbara Bassett, the new speech teacher at Robert E. Lee, which, incidentally, is still standing. She had as her guests, Margie Atlas, star of stage, screen, and television, Donald Bolling, prominent baby-kissing politician, Dick Gercken, the world-famous concert pianist, Eddie Cavin, now printing legal bills as chief printer for the U. S. Mint, Eleanor Lanford, foremost playwright of the present decade, Henry Rogers, president of Harvard, Barbara Holstein, professor of Social Rehabilitation of Lost Arts, Marvel Foy, Sweetheart of the Chinese Navy.

Dick: I understand that Jimmy Gill has bought out NBC and taken in Chester Anderson, Cynthia Acosta, and Dave Gingrich, as partners.

Sonny: I also understand that Ben Hulsey and Tommy Bartholf have their program on NBC playing strictly high brow jazz with Claire Kenyon as their vocalist.

Judy: Well, I really am disgusted with Jack Bedenbaugh, Salty Bennett, Wendell Dixon, Jimmy Hall, Gilbert Pomar, Billy Turknett, and Charlie Phillips, they've formed a Bachelors' Club. I saw them at Leland Burpee's night club, "The Red

- Stetson." Working at the night club is Jack Hines, the singing waiter, and John Layton, who interviews the celebrities and broadcasts all the gossip.
- Dick: Bobby Soderbloom and Walter Smith, with their juggling act, Myra Clarke, Bob Towers, Pat Cellar, and Raymond Worsham with their adagio dance, and Johnny Pringle with his famous magic act, make up the floor show.
- Sonny: Oh, say, isn't Colonel Davis the new editor of the Hobo News? It seems to me that I saw in the paper last week that Billy Baldwin and Jack Ammons have joined the Foreign Legion. Jack wants to keep in practice with his Spanish.
- Dick: Doris Shea and Dolly Ann Kissling have gone to the North Pole as missionaries, and I hear their business is sitting on the top of the world.
- Judy: Guess what! Dr. Earnest Harvey has finally succeeded in extracting Marty Heasley's appendix. And, I meant to tell you. Jenell Smith and Boots Ostner have opened a daring dress shop on 5th Avenue. They carry wonderful clothes—all designed by the firm of Weitzel, Belflower, and Stuart. Those boys have gone a long way with their art. And guess who's modeling there—Jan Henderson, Davy Gnann, Betty Nasrallah, and Carol Dwoskin.
- Dick: Talking about opening new buildings—have you seen the beautiful new animal hospital opened by Dr. Gilbert Geller? I hear he's confining his practice to dachshunds due to some unusual experiences in his past. His assistants, Jere Hines, Marvin Baker, and Carole Dowe, are tops in the field.
- Sonny: Say, I hear that Snookie Arflin is working toward his Ph.D. now. He certainly has made a name for himself in the field of education. From what I've heard, he and Billy Baldwin have teamed up to devise a new method of education in which there is no work required of the student.
- Judy: Speaking of no work—John Beasley certainly is headed for the top with the new experiments he has made in his lab making footballs invisible. Helping him on this project are those wizards of science, Don Gladden and Joe Hicks.
- Dick: Say—Beverly Huckabee and Mary Ann Esser have really made a successful comedy team since their old friend John Parks, the well-known movie agent, has signed them with that famous producer-director team, James and Bill Messerly.
- Judy: Did you know that Fiske Rogers is the modern Rudolph Valentino of the screen. He made quite a hit opposite Marcia Morris in his last movie entitled "Beach or Bust."
- Dick:—Remember Bill Bolin? Well, he's now the holder of the round-the-world non-stop flight record. He flew one of the latest Lewis Bush-John Carson designs. I also hear that they are working on a stratoliner to enable Dr. Lucia Atkinson to explore Jupiter. As companions and assistants, she is taking Neil Dame, Molly Cone, Tommy Daugherty, and Jerry Dell. It seems that all of them are tired of earthly living, and want a change of environment.
- Sonny: Tell me something, Judy? Is Jimmy (Mr. Anthony) Connelly still giving advice to the lovelorn? The last time I heard his program, Lawrence Danzey and Lucille Crouch were seeking information and counsel.
- Judy: Yes, I think he's still on the air right after that give-away show on which Reder Gardner is the M.C. Last week, who of all people but Geraldine Gilley, won the jack-pot for knowing who held the world's "longest talker" record—Beverly Hurst, of course.
- Dick: I read in Richard Lorberg's sports' column the other day that Tommy McCain, Eugene Martin, and Bobby Wetmore are on the U. S. Olympic relay team. That's really swell!
- Judy: Yes, and Billy Winn and Charles Saucer made the team too. Say—Admiral Lyle Schmehl has sent me an invitation for this afternoon to visit his new aircraft carrier docked here. How about you all coming along? From what I've heard, some of the old gang are under his command: Raymond Trescott is the navigator, Elwood Padgett, the cook, and Tom Wolfe, the engineer. I certainly will be glad to see them again.
- Sonny: Thanks a lot, but we've already made an appointment with Connie Brown, the new principal at Lee, to visit our old alma mater. When I called to make the appointment, none other than Sarah Parsons, who now heads the office staff, answered the phone. Helping her out now are Ann Ballou and Betty Sue Fryer.
- Dick: I hate to break this up, Judy, but we really have to run. It's been swell talking to you. Isn't it wonderful how much the class of 1950 has accomplished?

*Best wishes always to a sweet girl.
Love,
Sarah

JUNIOR

SHOW

Old Man Winter breathed his last and scurried away as the junior girls ushered in the spring with their sixth annual fashion show, featuring styles from Furchgotts. The lovely models stepped from their picture frames and paraded gracefully before the judges, displaying crisp cool cottons, eye-catching sportswear, as well as dainty evening wear. Alice Withee, announcer, gave many helpful tips on make-up and grooming. Between acts, several beautiful vocal solos and duets were offered. The climax of the afternoon was the presentation of the mascot, John Dittmar, by the president of the Junior Girls' Club.

Good Luck!

JUNIOR BOYS' FASHION SHOW

Once again the Junior Boys' Club set the pattern for what the well dressed man will wear this year. Dividing their show into three parts, they displayed clothes for school, business and sports, and evening wear—all furnished by Rosenblum's. Handsome models and their attractive companions, carefully schooled by their sponsor, Miss Durrance, made a picture that will not soon be forgotten by the students of Lee High.

The show reached its peak with the presentation of the mascot, lovely Sylvia Roberts, followed by the grand finale in which all the models returned to the stage to take a bow for the grand job they had done.

Outstanding Graduates

Introduction

Chosen from a class of 388 students, the outstanding graduates from the 1950 Senior Class of Robert E. Lee High School represent a cross section of youth. Displaying varied talents and skills, they have each excelled in some chosen phase of school life—music, art, dramatics, publications, or scholarship. Some have shown themselves to be all round students, doing well in any field they have entered. As a group, they have won for themselves this high distinction by their display of interest and cooperation during their years at Lee.

The list of 40 nominees was drawn up by a committee of students and the names were submitted to the complete faculty for the final decision. The twelve following boys and girls are those deemed by faculty and student body alike as the leading members of this year's graduating class.

THOMAS BARTHOLF

No phrase could better describe Tommy than, "He's an all round fellow." Although he is outstanding in any field he enters, music is definitely the highlight in his life. His scope here is boundless, ranging from Bach to Boogie. As photographer for the Spotlight, and an active member of the Delta Hi Y, Tommy is kept busy all the time, but, no matter how busy, he is always friendly and has a warm smile for everyone. To know Tommy is to recognize the traits that have marked him as an outstanding senior.

CLAIRE KENYON

If you have heard Claire sing, you remember her, for the lilt of her voice lingers, long after her song. Though her music is truly inspiring to her listeners, Claire's charm is heightened by her poise and graciousness, both before an audience and with her friends. Always ready to enjoy a joke, Claire has a keen sense of humor and her good-natured laugh is as often heard as her music. Vivacious and witty, Claire has captivated many with her delightful charm and merry disposition.

DOLLY ANN KISSLING

Quiet, yet lively—serious, yet gay—Dolly Ann has taken her place as one of the most respected students in Lee. Her earnest sincerity and high standards have combined to make her a truly outstanding individual. In her various enterprises, she has never failed to draw commendation and recognition, whether as a representative of the school, or simply as a fellow student. A rare person, Dolly has contributed time and time again to the welfare of our school. To know her is a privilege, and to be listed among her friends is an honor.

JACK BEDENBAUGH

Exhibiting unusual skill and leadership, Jack proved himself dependable and trustworthy early in his years at Lee High. Holding many prominent offices, he has deftly executed his responsibilities with commendable initiative. Easily recognizable by his warm greeting and ever-ready smile, Jack has shown himself to be a straightforward and completely likeable person. Upon the close of his high school career, he can look back and truthfully say, "A job well done."

JOE BELFLOWER

Modest, unassuming, completely likeable . . . Joe, with his magic fingers has painted his way to success. Always ready with a slow smile or an encouraging word, he is gifted with an abundance of fun, evenly contrasted by a quiet seriousness. Though easy-going, he will vigorously defend what he believes to be right. Week-days and nights—holidays and Sundays—he can be found at school "pitching in"—sawing, nailing, painting—back-stage.

It is with a great deal of pleasure that we take advantage of this opportunity to bring into the limelight one who has worked long and diligently behind the scenes, and to offer to him our overwhelming vote of gratitude.

PEGGY MILLER

Peggy will long be remembered for her unforgettable portrayal of Mitzi in "A Date With Judy," for there, as in real life, she made a delightful hit with her vivacity and pep.

An enthusiastic follower and a capable leader, Peggy adds a spark of personality wherever she goes. Brim full of cheer, she joys in having a "jolly good time," and her winsome smile captivates her many friends. Her frankness and honest sincerity have placed her high in the estimation of her classmates and her limitless capacity for warm understanding has opened to her the hearts of those who know her best.

COLONEL DAVIS

Earnestness and sincerity mark Colonel as a leader among his classmates at Lee, and his unassuming friendliness has merited him a wide circle of admirers.

Easy-going, yet diligent, Colonel can be counted on to come through in his responsibilities, for he is willing to devote himself to his tasks and to persevere to the end. As president of the Senior Class, he has skillfully led his classmates through a happy and successful year. His high ideals and genial good nature have gained for Colonel the admiration and respect of his fellow students.

MARCIA MORRIS

Always full of sparkle and fun, Marcia has won her popularity through her interest and enthusiasm in varied fields. Her participation and cooperation are surpassed by few, and her numerous achievements are widely recognized throughout the school. She has devoted her time generously to Lee's worthiest enterprises, and she thoroughly deserves a tribute for her untiring efforts. An artist in every sense of the word, she has been largely responsible for the illustrations in two publications on the Blue and Gray, and her talent has further extended itself to directing numerous productions in the field of dramatics. Marcia's contagious grin will long be remembered by all of us, and her friendship will be cherished by those with whom she has come in contact.

SONNY MAY

We have cheered him time and time again, pride has welled within us as we viewed his impressive performances. Well-known on the football field, Sonny has brought glory to Lee High whenever he has been called upon. As a class officer, an officer of Alpha Hi-Y, and as a fellow student, he has won his way into our hearts and warmed us with his winning smile. We feel confident that wherever he goes, he will continue to cross his goals with flying colors.

JENELL SMITH

Sunny blondness, warmth, a friendly smile . . . these remind us of Jenell. A willing worker, she can make the hardest job a pleasant task. She has served the school in numerous capacities—President of the Junior Girls' Club, Secretary of the National Honor Society, Vice President of the Senior Class, and student chairman of arrangements for the evaluating committee, yet she remains sweet, unaffected, and lovable. Her one fault might be her modesty that keeps us from knowing her many other achievements. As we look back through the years, we'll remember Lee as a better place because Jenell was there, and our lives richer ones because she entered into them.

ANNA SODERQUEST

Charm, poise, a touch of sophistication . . . Anna's gifts are innate. Never happier than in the glow of the footlights, she has won recognition for herself and for Lee High throughout the state. Not only talented, but dependable, Anna is a real trouper. Her quiet dignity, a perfect companion for her particular beauty, is oftentimes betrayed by the mischievous sparkle in her eyes. Our vote for success goes to Anna—actress, artist, and friend.

JACK HARPER

A capable and efficient worker, Jack is the "nose behind the news" at Lee High. As president of the Delta Hi Y and Editor-in-Chief of the Spotlight, Jack has demonstrated his resourcefulness and ability. His forensic eloquence, likewise, has shown worth and achievement.

A conscientious student, Jack is one to be counted upon, for he is dependable and self-reliant. With his intelligence and initiative, Jack is certain to be distinguished wherever he goes.

Advertising

Students

Again the Blue and Gray leads all other schools in the state of Florida! Breaking all records of the past, the advertising staff has sold $2,565.00 in ads. However, this goal was not reached without hard work and endurance. Since September our staff has been out soliciting business. Each has sacrificed many an afternoon and weekend to make this annual the best in our history.

The advertisers on the following pages are the ones who have made this, the 1950 Blue and Gray, possible. These are the people that are interested in the welfare of Robert E. Lee. Look carefully through this section and then remember these advertisers. Support them to your utmost. Yes, They haven't let you down, so don't let them down!

Appreciation

The 1950 Blue & Gray Annual is the story of you — a record of your days in Lee. Without diligent and unceasing work by members of the staff, this book could never have been printed. So we should like to say "Hats off" to every student and staff member who helped us in our long, hard pull to the end.

To our sponsor, Mr. Denver Sayre, for being patient, easy going and so agreeable to our every idea —

To the Faculty members who devoted their time to us, giving valuable criticism, editing and rewriting — Miss Cowles, Miss Graff, Mrs. Vinson —

To the persons outside of school who helped us gather these ideas into the 1950 Blue & Gray — who helped us meet our problems and our deadlines with equal concern — Mr. Leo Oglesby of The H. & W. B. Drew Company and Mr. M. T. Respass of Respass Grimes Engraving Company —

To these people who guided us safely through the hazardous channels of annual work we say a very sincere and heartfelt

Thank you!

What a good bank means to you . . .

A bank is not just a place where people check money in and out. Rather it is the heart of the whole business community.

It helps to finance business. It helps people build homes. It handles the transfer of huge amounts of money from one business to another, from one person to another.

Through its connections in other cities, it enables you to buy goods, pay bills not only in Jacksonville but everywhere in the world.

Whether or not you plan to go on to college, plan now to establish a banking connection. We feel sure you will like the friendly way in which the Florida National Bank does business.

Come in, ask all the questions you want, you'll be most welcome.

Lee High
Varsity

Once again, the focus of sports attention turned to Lee High—Big Ten Football Champions of 1950. Boasting one of the finest athletic programs in the state, the department provided a well rounded season, offering to the student body participation and entertainment. Leaders in High School athletics, the Generals produced top flight teams throughout the year and at the close of a glorious season left even brighter hopes for success and victory in the future.

ROOSEVELT GAME

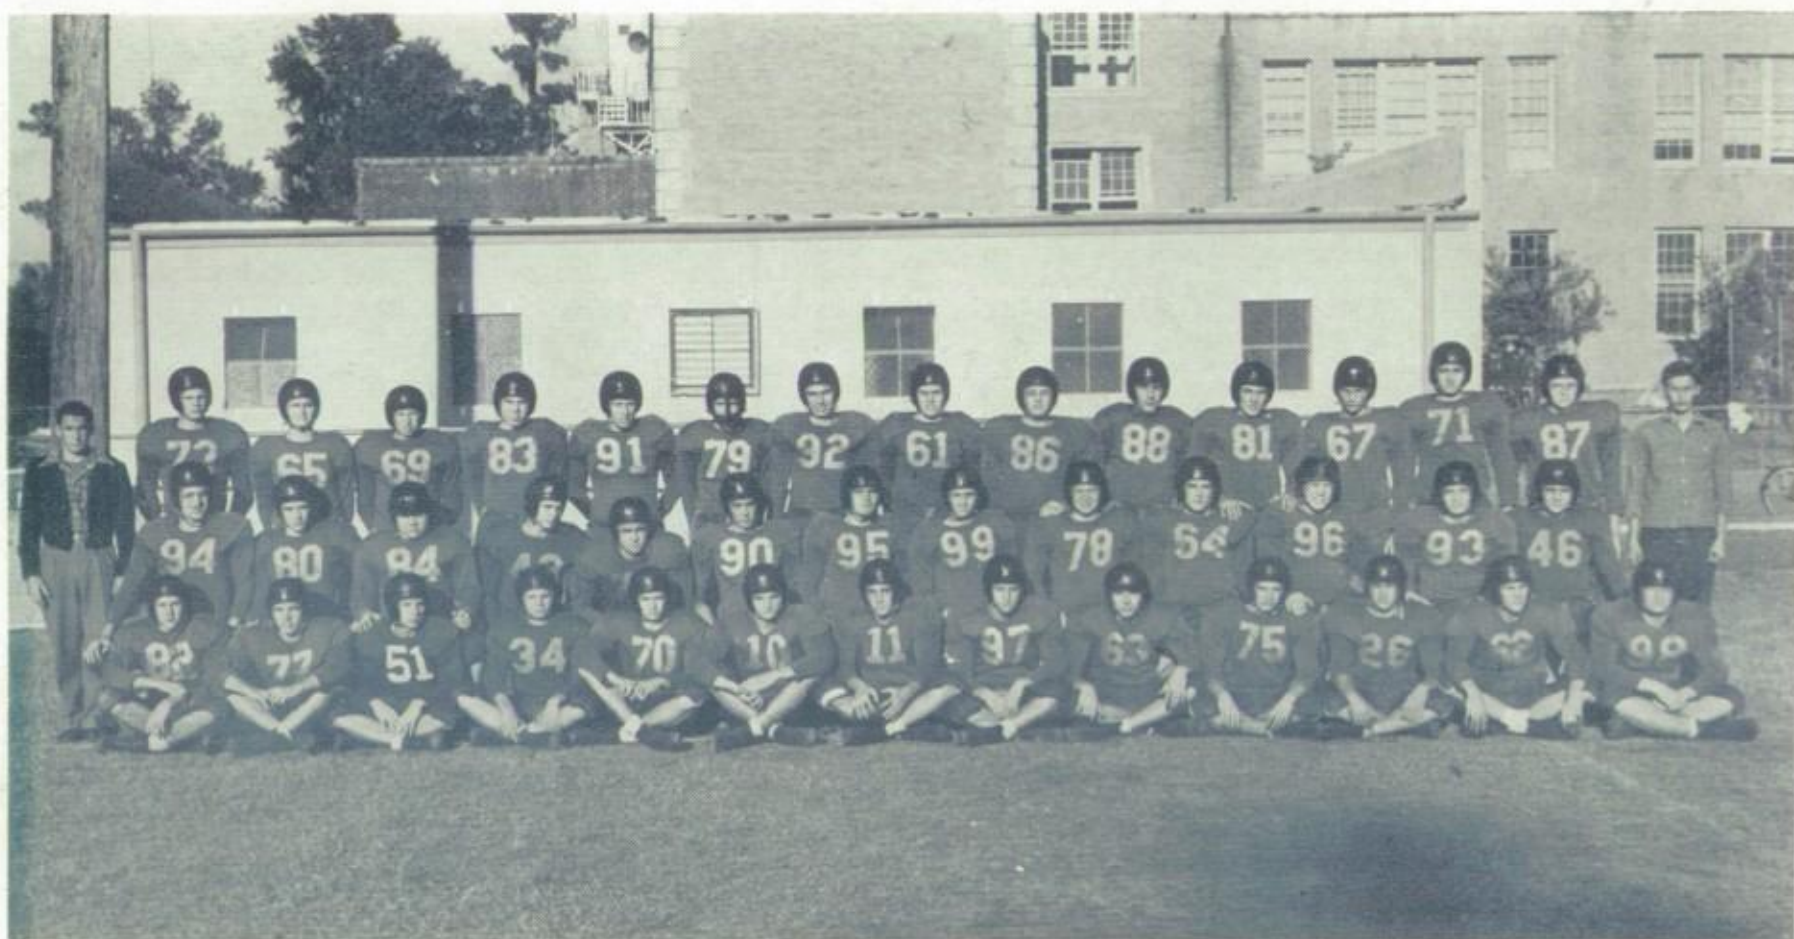

Contrary to historical fact, Robert E. Lee did march through Georgia. On Sept. 24 Lee gained its first victory of the season with a crushing assault on Roosevelt High of Atlanta. Sparked by sleek running and startling line plays, the Generals ran up a neat 26 points. Trained by its expert coaching staff in the summer maneuvers, the famed Lee squad started the season in fine fashion.

ORLANDO GAME

The Blue and Gray took its second victory, 26 to 12, at the expense of the Tigers of Orlando on September 30. Lee's never-failing line was the difference between the two teams.

MIAMI EDISON GAME

In the Orange Bowl on October 13, Lee's predominating offense rolled Miami Edison to the tune of 32 to 0. Long runs and stubborn defensive play highlighted the triumph. This, our fourth victory, was accomplished behind the devastating blocking and the evenly distributed touchdowns.

MIAMI HIGH GAME

The Stingarees were tumbled from the undefeated ranks by the Riversiders in a 27 to 0 game in the Gator Bowl October 21. Knife-like blocking and lightning offensive power featured the once feared game. The Stingarees play did not at all hinder our offense which clicked successfully all evening. The touchdowns were tallied by the players who took a long pass in the end zone. Lee, the only team in the state that holds a victory over Senior High for 21 years, now has four straight wins in the series.

WEST PALM GAME

Lee avenged last year's only defeat by vanquishing West Palm Beach on the Wildcats home field with a score of 21-6. The Generals' bull-dozing power plays shoved the "cats" around during most of the game. Superb line play contributed immensely to the three touchdowns of the all conquering Generals.

HILLSBOROUGH GAME

Held by a determined Terrier line for three and a half quarters, the highly efficient Lee machine finally went over for one touchdown in Tampa, November 4. Besides the savage line play which highlighted the hard fought contest, the great team work was a contributing factor to the 6-0 victory.

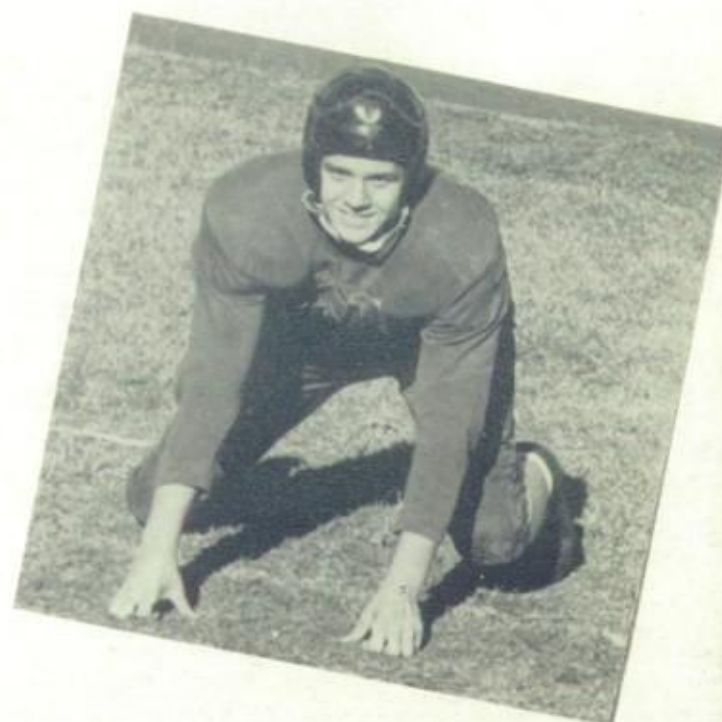

LANDON GAME

No touchdowns, little offensive play, and strong defensive play featured the second 0-0 tie in the Gator Bowl, November 11. Lee held an edge in statistics but not in score. Both teams could not penetrate the other's defense enough to tally. There were thirty-two thousand fans who watched Lee and Landon battle to a scoreless tie.

The girls' athletic department has outdone itself in giving the girls a well-rounded variety of sports. Baseball, basketball, volleyball, speedball, and individual sports have been in the line up of activities. Each activity climaxed with a tournament.

In the extra-curricular activities sponsored by this department were the basketball, volleyball, tennis, and swimming teams, and the Girls' Athletic Association. This after-school program afforded those girls who were interested, a chance to participate in the sport they most enjoyed. Thus, the athletic department has contributed a great deal toward the success of this school year.
